

PRIVACY CASE NOTES

First complain to the organisation - s. 104, IPP2, IPP 3

The Complainant alleged that a public sector organisation had recorded incorrect sensitive information pertaining to him and had subsequently released that information to his partner. The complaint was not accepted as investigations showed that the Complainant had not approached the public sector organisation to resolve his complaint in the first instance. The Complainant made no further contact with this Office.