

PRIVACY CASE NOTES

---

Unauthorised release of sensitive information - IPP 2

A person complained that a health service provider had released personal information about the Complainant to the Complainant's employer without authorisation on three separate occasions. The matter was resolved by mediation and it was agreed that the health service provider would pay compensation to the Complainant.