

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION CASE NOTES

---

Fees were reasonable
Information Act s.156

The complaint was about the fee the public sector agency charged the Complainant in relation to the Complainant's application to access information.

The Commissioner's delegate found that there was insufficient evidence to substantiate the complaint because the estimated costs were reasonable.